We are pleased to inform you that your application for European accreditation for:

25th European Congress of Obstetrics and Gynaecology in conjunction with the 15th Congress of Turkish Society of Obstetrics and Gynecology

Venue: Antalya, Turkey (17.–21.05.2017)

Event code: 15702

was granted 24 European CME credits (ECMEC) by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME).

European Accreditation

European Accreditation is granted by the EACCME in order to allow participants who attend the above-mentioned activity to validate their credits in their own country.

Accreditation Statement

Accreditation by the EACCME confers the right to place the following statement in all communication materials including the registration website, the event programme and the certificate of attendance. The following statements must be used without revision:

»The 'European Board & College of Obstetrics and Gynaecology' (or) '25th European Congress of Obstetrics and Gynaecology in conjunction with the 15th Congress of Turkish Society of Obstetrics and Gynecology' is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide the following CME activity for medical specialists. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS), www.uems.net.«

»The '25th European Congress of Obstetrics and Gynaecology in conjunction with the 15th Congress of Turkish Society of Obstetrics and Gynecology' is designated for a maximum of (or 'for up to') 24 hours of European external CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.«

»Through an agreement between the European Union of Medical Specialists and the American Medical Association, physicians may convert EACCME credits to an equivalent number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Information on the process to convert EACCME credit to AMA credit can be found at www.ama-assn.org/go/internationalcme.«

»Live educational activities, occurring outside of Canada, recognized by the UEMS-EACCME for ECMEC credits are deemed to be Accredited Group Learning Activities (Section 1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.«

EACCME credits

Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity. The EACCME credit system is based on 1 ECMEC per hour with a maximum of 3 ECMECs for half a day and 6 ECMECs for a full-day event.

Logo

The UEMS – EACCME logo is a service mark of the European Union of Medical Specialists – European Accreditation Council for CME. This service mark may be used publicly only with the permission of the UEMS – EACCME. The logo may only be used in conjunction with, and in proximity to, the EACCME accreditation statement. The logo cannot be used in notices, advertising, or promotion of activities other than in association with the EACCME accreditation statement.

Feedback report

The EACCME requires you to provide a feedback report of the event within four weeks of its completion together with a copy of the list of participants and the results of the individual feedback assessments by participants.
